

Alexander Officer Award

1994	Dr. John Blatherwick & the Vancouver Health Department for program excellence in health protection and health promotion initiatives.	Vancouver, B.C.
1995	NO NOMINATION	-
1996	NO NOMINATION	-
1997	NO NOMINATION	-
1998	NO NOMINATION	-
1999	NO NOMINATION	-
2000	Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture & Marketing for its outstanding contribution in creating a new Food Safety Program.	Truro, Nova Scotia
2001	NO NOMINATION	-
2002	Capital Health Region, Vancouver Island Health Authority for development of a leading edge Tobacco Reduction Program for Greater Victoria.	Victoria, B.C.
	Health Canada, Workplace Health and Public Safety Program for new implementation of Voluntary Compliance Inspection Programs.	Ottawa, Ontario
2003	Bruce Grey-Bruce Health Unit for their professional and thorough response to the Walkerton E. Coli outbreak.	Owen Sound, Ontario
	Capital Health Region – leadership, innovation, excellence and outstanding performance in Environmental Health.	Edmonton, Alberta
2004	Technical Advisory Committee on Safe Drinking Water (Alberta Health & Wellness) for development of the Environmental Health Field Manual for Private, Public and Communal Drinking Water Systems in Alberta.	Edmonton, Alberta
2005	Saskatchewan Health's Provincial West Nile Virus Program and Mr. Phil Curry for dedication to protecting public health through education and proactive intervention.	Regina, Saskatchewan

2006	Lowry School of Pool & Spa Maintenance for leadership in education concerning safe swimming pool operation & maintenance.	Windsor, Ontario
	Saskatchewan Coalition for Tobacco Reduction Advocacy Committee for achieving key tobacco reduction initiatives to protect the public's health.	Regina, Saskatchewan
2007	Interior Health Authority, Health Protection Program for leadership in key areas such as air quality, drinking water and hand washing education that advance the cause of health protection.	Kamloops, B.C.
2008	Health Protection Branch, Office of the Chief M. H. O., New Brunswick Dept. of Health for the development of a food service inspection report website and the first "Food Standard Operating Procedures".	Fredericton, New Brunswick
	Technical Advisory Committee on Public Health and the Oil & Gas Industry in Alberta for the development of the important Environmental Reference Manual on Public Health and the Oil & Gas Industry	Edmonton, Alberta
2009	College of the North Atlantic, Environmental Health technology Program for the creation of an innovative Environmental Health Technology Program in 2003 based on CIPHI stated competencies plus many ongoing advancements & achievements.	Doha, Qatar
	Guelph Food Technology Centre for the creation of internationally acknowledged food safety and quality training programs including customized HACCP programs.	Guelph, Ontario
2010	BC Provincial FoodSafe Secretariat for its innovation and leadership in working with the BC Farmer's Market Assn., Health Authorities and other agencies to develop a food safety training program for farmers and producers who make, bake or grow products to sell at farmer's markets, at farm gates, etc.	Victoria, B.C.

2011	Nova Scotia Dept. of Health & Wellness for the preparation and publishing of an excellent report titled, “The Renewal of Public Health in Nova Scotia; Building a Public Health System to Meet the Needs of Nova Scotians” . Through an innovative and participatory process a set of standards were developed to move public health into the 21st century.	Halifax. Nova Scotia
	Environmental Public Health Service, First Nations and Inuit Health of Health Canada in Alberta for the implementation of an advanced drinking water database system in cooperation with First Nations and Indian and Northern Affairs Canada to assist EHOs in determining the safety of drinking water supplies in Alberta First nations communities.	Edmonton, Alberta
2012	Association of Supervisors of Public Health Inspectors Ontario (ASPHIO) for outstanding and meritorious achievements by providing public health leadership to Ontario for over 30 years. This includes close working relationship with affiliate public health agencies, the creation of expert panels to deal with complex issues dealing with the health of the public.	Thunder Bay, Ontario
2013	Five Hills Regional Health Authority & Saskatoon Regional Health Authority for innovation & leadership in implementing the first electronic data system for staff and programs in Saskatchewan while subject to restrictions on manpower and outside resources. Their leadership opens the way for the ultimate use of modern electronic technology across health authorities in Saskatchewan.	Moose Jaw & Saskatoon, Saskatchewan

2014	Alberta Health Services-Environmental Public Health Disease Control Program for outstanding performances during a 2012 multi-provincial E. coli 0157:H7 outbreak, a 2013 E. coli 0157:H7 outbreak associated with unpasteurized Gouda cheese, Alberta being selected as the 3rd sentinel site for the “FoodNet Canada” plus several other situations demonstrating important leadership in public health matters.	Edmonton, Alberta
2015	Alberta Health Services – Environmental Public Health Team for their outstanding collaborative & innovative performance over the last year. Despite manpower challenges, the Environmental Public Health team showed leadership and innovation in planning, prioritizing and managing the complex social and regulatory issues in assisting persons with developmental disabilities (PPD) located in 796 care facilities specifically designated to assist these persons.	Edmonton, Alberta

Title: Alexander Officer Award List

Tim Roark, National Historian
September 26, 2015